

MSIC NEWS

Canadian Choirs on Tour

Get your choir's name on the map!
Is your choir travelling (provincially, nationally, or internationally) over the course of the summer and fall of 2014? If so, the ACCC want to know!

The Advocacy Committee of the Association of Canadian Choral Communities (ACCC) is preparing a map for display at Podium 2014 (www.podium2014.ca) to show the global activity of Canadian choirs.

If your choir is touring, please contact Joel Tranquilla joeltranquilla@gmail.com ACCC Vice-President Advocacy, with the name of your choir, where you're from, and where you'll be travelling.

Be part of Canada's choral footprint!

Let's put Newfoundland and Labrador on the map!

Two New Resources!

The Music Ed Zone is offering a free, original Easter resource for K-6 music. To learn more, please visit <http://www.musicedzone.com> Special thanks to Lisa Gillam for sharing!

Tanglecove (Dan Rubin and Dave Panting) created a new source of traditional materials for music teachers who wish to integrate folk melodies into their work with string players. Check out <http://www.tanglecove.ca> for recordings and resources.

CMEA Info

The 2014 National Student Essay Competition submission deadline is May 1, 2014. For more information, please visit: <http://cmea.ca/news/call-for-2014-essay-competition/>

As well, the CMEA is accepting applications for research funding. Information is here:

<http://cmea.ca/news/applications-for-research-funding>

---

MUSIC MONDAY

On May 5, join Commander Chris Hadfield and thousands of Canadians in celebrating music education during Music Monday's 10th anniversary! Watch Chris Hadfield's Invitation Sing the anthem, play an instrument, watch the webcast! For more information, please visit: Music Monday website, Facebook/MusicMonday and @musicmakesus\_ca.
To register for Music Monday, please visit musicmonday.ca

How are you and your students celebrating Music Monday? Please share with us - we'd love to hear your plans!

---